St. Augustine Unleashed - Daniel F. Owsley 2012-03-26
The confessions of St. Augustine needs to have it's volume turned way up. Only then may it's overflowing beauty and true wisdom be amplified to the hallowed place where both Protestants and Catholics shall finally esteem it as the greatest Christian classic that's ever been written. Nor does this timeless literature loose any of it's gusto even though it's almost a thousand years old. For it's more than clear to any Christ loving soul that Augustine had the heart of David as he poured out his contrite heart unto our Lord of Always. Neither should any believer fail to realize that this is a holy work which was wrought through many tears, while many fears were being rebuked in the name of Jesus Christ Almighty. And for anyone who hasn't had the pleasure of flipping through the following pages they have truly deprived themselves of some blessed food for their soul. For it's a fact that's written upon the most powerful winds of empowerment that the invaluable lessons that are contained herein helped to shape the future of our Lord's church in some drastic ways. For the golden words of Augustine have truly been a treasure that was inspired by the Holy Ghost as he was wonderfully moved by the anointing of a prophet. And it now obvious that there's never been a greater need for such an outstanding work of love. For it also goes without saying that these extremely turbulent times have been bringing forth the kind of terrible apostasy that could never possibly exist if people followed the words of this God fearing saint. And it's the belief of this author that every "umph" that's written within scripture can also be found within this following gold mine of sanctified thought. So if anyone claims to be a seeker of the truest kind of truths that can truthfully be laid out, this book is a must read!!! For there's very little Christian writing, aside from the New Testament, that shines with God's glory anywhere close to these thought provoking and heart wrenching confessions. So dare to go into the mind of Christ as this masterpiece of the ages is explored. And if anyone is brave enough to explore such bountiful blessings as this book contains it shall swiftly become most clear what St. Augustine meant when he wrote: "But in the former time we were moved to do evil, forsaking Thee; but Thou, the One, the Good God, didst never cease doing good. And we also have some good works, of Thy gift, but not eternal; after them we trust to rest in Thy great hallowing. But Thou, being the Good which needeth no good, art ever at rest, because Thy rest is Thou Thyself. And what man can teach man to understand this? or what Angel, an Angel? or what Angel, a man? Let it be asked of Thee, sought in Thee, knocked for at Thee; so, so shall it be received, so shall it be found, so shall it be opened. Amen." GRATIAS TIBI DOMINE

Why You Need Jesus - Benjamin F. Bautista 2009-05

Why You Need Jesus? We are all sinners, on our own we are powerless to save ourselves (Romans 3:23). Only Jesus has the power to either save us or condemn us (John 3:18). For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 6:24). God inspired me to write this book so as to encourage those who have not made a decision to follow Jesus Christ because life is too short and we have one life to live. I am driven by my passion for Christ, and I intend not to impose my spirituality on others or denigrate anyone for their beliefs, their lifestyle and their worldview, but am deeply committed in sharing the gospel of Jesus because I believe Jesus is the key to eternal life. I am provoking you to ignite your emotion so that you will have a change of heart to believe and to receive Jesus in your heart (John 1:12). Death is an inescapable reality that we all have to face whether we like it or not. Our earthly life is a transition from here to eternity. Jesus is the way, the life and the truth. No one comes to the Father except through Him (John 14:6). Think about it. Benjamin F. Bautista is a resident of Orange County, California. He's married with two children. He earned his B.A. in Political Science from Silliman University, Dumaguete City, Philippines. He attended Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in Brea, California and transferred to Newburgh Theological Seminary in Newburgh, Indiana where he finished his Master of Arts in Theology and Ph.D. in Pastoral Ministry. He is the founder and Pastor of In Jesus Name Global Ministry in Orange County, California and Las Vegas, Nevada.

Shepherd of Hermas - Daniel F. Owsley 2013-08-23

The Shepherd of Hermas – Book of Visions is a former Bible book from the second century that stresses that “Loving words are as a honeycomb sweet to the soul, and such are as deep waters, and the wellspring of love is like a flowing brook.” And this Agrapha version weaves in hundreds of proven sayings of Christ from many ancient sources such as: “A man without prayer can no more be a man of good works than a dumb man can plead his cause to a blind one; than a man can defend himself without movement; or attack another without weapons, sail without rudder, or preserve dead flesh without salt. For he that has no hand can not receive.” So be blessed by a multitude of the Lord's sayings like: “For how can a carpenter build in the mist of a whirlwind? The seed of violence can reap only a harvest of desolation, and from the parched clay can grow no living thing.” And truly I say unto anyone that has worldly hunger: the words of this book shall be a barren buffet; but to those who seek the Bread of Life they offer a true feast. Simply an Amazing book considering the years of research that has gone into it. Jesus also said, “Neither can people who are like dry canals, ever be made to be a partaker of My living waters; nor can death be found in those who live for me, just as life can not be found in those who die daily to all that is morally good.” So please partake of this offering: For it shall bring forth scads of latter rain into any lives that are tired of spiritual draught.

Last Words - C. Bernard Ruffin 2006-01-31

The last words of the dying often provide insight into their feelings about life. Some are peaceful ("It is very beautiful over there"--Thomas Alva Edison); many are spiritual ("Don't ask the Lord to keep me here. Ask him to have mercy"--Walker Percy); others are angry ("God-damn the whole frigging world and everybody in it--except you Carlotta"--W.C. Fields); still others reflect the weary fight against death ("I'm bored of it all"--Sir Winston Churchill). Nearly 2,000 deathbed quotations from saints, popes, statesmen, scientists, soldiers, musicians, athletes, artists, entertainers, writers, criminals and others are included in this reference work. Each entry includes a brief biographical sketch of the person and sets the quotation in context. The sources for the quotes include biographies, newspaper and magazine accounts, and, in a few instances, firsthand accounts.

Letters of Pontious Pilate - Daniel F. Owsley 2012-03-19

In this masterpiece of history the official document where Pontius Pilate reported Christ's death to Emperor Tiberius; went on to explain that it was recorded by the Roman historian, Valleus Paterculus, and was finally discovered in the early 1850's in Rome's Vatican library. 3 It was located by a researcher named H.C. Whydaman that spent five years going through countless volumes, before he finally found that rare letter; Nor could any scholar ever deny that those priceless papers weren't worth thousands of times it's weight in purist gold. 4 Thusly, the following are true excerpts from that document of history - Pilate wrote this about Jesus: 5 "His golden-colored hair and beard gave to His appearance a celestial aspect. He appeared to be about thirty years of age. Never have I seen a sweeter or more serene countenance; This man was neither seditious nor rebellious; Never have I read in the works of the philosophers anything that can compare to the maxims of Jesus." 6 However, "complaints were made daily at the praetorium against the insolence of Jesus." Therefore, "I was informed that some misfortune would befall Him; That it would not be the first time that Jerusalem had stoned those who called themselves prophets." 7 "When the Nazarene made His appearance, I trembled in every limb as does a guilty culprit, though the Nazarene was as calm as innocence itself." 8 "For some time I contemplated with admiration and awe this extraordinary type of man." 9 Then after Pilate regretfully explained the complaints, being laid at the feet of our Author of Salvation, he spoke with great emotion to our All In All, stressing: 10 "Your blood shall not be spilt, You are more precious in my estimation on account of Your wisdom than all the of the proud Pharisees who abuse the freedom granted them by the Romans. I will protect You against them. My praetorium shall be an asylum, sacred both day and night." CHAPTER 2 CHRIST''s REACTION 1 Then Pilate described the response of our Sovereign One, saying, "Jesus carelessly shook His head, and said with a grave and divine smile: "When the day shall have come, there will be no asylums for the Son of Man, neither in the earth, nor under the earth. The asylum of the just is there," pointing to the heavens. "That which is written in the books of the prophets must be accomplished!" 2 The Lord also calmly explained Himself further, saying, "Prince of the earth, your words proceed not from true wisdom; Say to the torrent to stop in the midst of the mountain-gorge: it will uproot the trees of the valley. The torrent will answer you that it obeys the laws of nature and the creator. But God alone knows where the water flow of that torrent will go. Verily I say unto you, before the rose of Sharon finally blossoms, the blood of the Just shall be spilled." 3 Christ additionally added, "I come not to bring war into the world, but peace, love, and charity; For I was born the same day on which Augustus gave peace to the Roman world. 4 Persecutions proceed not from me, but I expect it from others, and will meet it in obedience to the will of my Father, Who has shown me the way. Restrain, therefore, your worldly prudence." 5 Then that distraught governor continued his letter, stating that Jesus then "disappeared like a bright shadow behind the curtain of the basilic." - And that was to his "great relief." For he "felt a heavy burden", which he "could not relive while in His presence." 6 But Pilate added, "the city was overflowing with a tumultuous populace, clamouring for the death of the Nazarene. My emissaries informed me danger was pressing." CHAPTER 3 THE OMEN OF OMENS 1 Then Pontius went on to share something very personal, saying, "I had taken a wife from among the Gauls. Weeping and throwing herself at my feet, she said to me: "Beware, beware, and touch not that man: for He is holy. Last night I saw Him in a vision." (Just as Matthew 27:19 recorded.) Then she quickly added, "He was walking on the waters. 2 He was flying on the wings of the wind. He spoke to the tempest and to the fishes of the lake; all were obedient to Him." 3 So after that Roman official described his wife''s real emotional pleas, he exclaimed that "an air of desolation and sadness enveloped" him immediately. 4 Later on, after Pilate''s hand was finally forced into action by the crazed people, to send Christ to His very worst fate, he continued writing, "For Jesus the elements were no more in His hands than the clay of the potter. He could convert water into wine; He could change death into life, disease into health; He could calm the seas, still the storms, call up fish with a silver coin in it''s mouth." 5 " Now, I say, if He could do all these things, which He did. And many more, as the Jews all testify, and it was doing these things that created this enmity against Him - He was not charged with criminal offenses, nor was He charged with violating any law, nor of wronging any individual person, and all these facts are known to thousands, as well by His foes, as by His enemies - I am almost ready to say, as did Manlius at the cross, "Truly, this was the Son of God!" 6 After finishing that age old text, I suddenly stood very dumbfounded; I was also extremely amazed, perplexed, and really felt like scratching my head. 7 For it was as clear as a tear, that Jesus was hastily arrested without indictment; Accused of heresy without evidence; Adjudged without witnesses; Punished without a verdict; And at the end of that most unjust day, our Living Advocate of Justice was then condemned to die by a trembling judge, that couldn't even find any fault in Him.

Eternal Security - Charles F. Stanley 1990-08-27

Do you ever find yourself wondering . . . Is it actually possible to know, beyond the shadow of a doubt, that I am going to heaven? If you say that my salvation is "eternally secure" and that I can never lose it, does that mean that I can commit any sin and still go to heaven? How can an understanding of "eternal security" make a difference in my Christian life? With the wisdom and skill of a man who has personally wrestled with these questions, internationally-known pastor and bestselling author Charles Stanley addresses the age-old issue of grace vs. works in this compassionate, straight-forward book. With questions at the end of each chapter, Eternally Secure is an excellent choice for individual or group study. "I know from experience that until you settle once and for all the question of whether or not you are eternally secure, joy will elude you. Therefore, it is my prayer that God will use this book in your life and that in the very near future you will be able to face life with the confidence that comes through knowing you are eternally secure. ?Charles Stanley Previously published in hardcover (0840790953). From Worldly to Christian Wisdom and Truth - Nicholas C.
