South-Western Century Twenty-one Accounting - Claudia Bienias Gilbertson 2005-02-01

CENTURY 21 ACCOUNTING GENERAL JOURNAL (Green Text) begins with a two-column general journal, and then introduces students to special journals in cycle two. Based on teacher input, we have completely reorganized this new edition of CENTURY 21, starting with a service business organized as a proprietorship, progressing to a merchandising business organized as a corporation, and concluding with special topics, partnerships, and recording international sales and electronic transactions. Technology is integrated throughout the text, including Automated Accounting, Peachtree, QuickBooks, and Microsoft Excel. Also, the New Student Companion CD-ROM is included with each text. The student CD is exclusively available with CENTURY 21 and includes Competitive Event Prep, Automated Accounting data files, Electronic flash cards of key terms, Web links, PowerPoint presentations, and much, much more! CENTURY 21 ACCOUNTING presents real-world source documents as each new transaction is presented in the text. Source documents provide the objective evidence for journalizing every transaction, and are now included in the working papers for selected end of chapter problems. T accounts are always used to analyze transactions into debit and credit parts to increase student comprehension of journalizing transactions. Illustrations are consistently placed at the top of the page and include step-by-step instructions. Concepts are reinforced through descriptive text to provide complete accounting instruction. Each chapter is divided into three or four lessons with corresponding assessment activities right at the point of use. In addition, several short application problems at the end of each chapter have been added to build student's knowledge before completing the longer mastery and challenge problems.

The accounting cycle is best learned by doing. Thus, the goal of this accounting simulation is to provide the student with a hands-on approach to learning the accounting cycle--from analyzing and journalizing transactions and events to financial statement preparation and end-of-period closing. If completed manually, this simulation may take 10 - 14 hours to complete. Alternatively, the student may use computerized accounting packages such as Simply Accounting by Sage, QuickBooks®, MYOB®, etc. Study Guide Solutions, Chapters 1-9 for Heintz/Parry's College Accounting, 21st - James A Heintz, D.B.A., C.P.A. 2013-01-09

College Accounting - John Ellis Price 2003

College Accounting provides solid coverage of accounting concepts and principles. The textbook establishes a foundation of accounting procedures within the traditional framework of a proprietorship accounting cycle, and then builds on this framework as it examines additional methods of accounting for asset, liability, and equity accounts. This firm foundation in accounting can serve as basic preparation for students pursuing an accounting requisite outside of business programs or for a management, marketing, or finance program.
