Peter DM Bwimbo: Mlinzi Mkuu wa Mwalimu Nyerere - D.M. Bwimbo

2015-11-03

On 20th January 1964, at the Colito Army Barracks just outside Dar es salaam, 15 officers of the Tanganyika Army that was inherited from the colonial state led a mutiny against the independent Tanganyika government. One group went to the State House with the intention of forcing President Julius Nyerere to accept their demands. What would have happened if they had succeeded in entering the State House and if President Nyerere had refused to accept their demands, as he most likely would have done? Anything could have happened and in the worst case scenario Tanzania's history and indeed the history of the whole of Africa would have been seriously affected. This book is about the courage and quick thinking of Peter Bwimbo, the then head of the Presidential Protection Unit and Nyerere's Chief Body Guard who, alone, planned and executed an ingenious and successful evacuation of President Nyerere and Vice President Rashid Kawawa, whisking them away from the State House before the mutineers got there. By a clever ruse he convinced the ferry operators on duty before dawn to ferry them across the Kigamboni Creek. From there they walked several miles to a hiding place in a house that was offered by an ordinary citizen and where they stayed until the situation was normalised several days later.

Cultural Archives of Atrocity - Muriungi Columba 2019-05-14

Studies on the aesthetic representations of atrocity the world over have taken different discursive dimensions from history, sociology, political to human rights. These perspectives are usually geared towards understanding the manifestations, extent, political and economic implications of atrocities. In all these cases, representation has been the singular concern. Cultural Archives of Atrocity: Essays on the Protest Tradition in Kenyan Literature, Culture and Society brings together generic ways of interrogating artistic representations of atrocity in Kenya. Couched on interdisciplinary, multidisciplinary and cross-disciplinary approaches, essays in this volume investigate representations of Atrocity in Kenyan Literature, Film, Popular Music and other mediated cultural art forms. Contributors to this volume not only bring on board multiple and competing perspectives on studying atrocity and how they are archived but provide refreshing and valuable insights in examining the artistic and cultural interpellations of atrocity within the socio-political imaginaries of the Kenyan nation. This volume forms part of the growing critical resources for scholars undertaking studies on atrocity within the fields of ethnic studies, cultural studies, postcolonial studies, peace and conflict, criminology, psychology, political economy and history in Kenya.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS ANTHOLOGY - STEPHEN OGWENO 2023-03-29

The Mental Health Matters: Lessons and Experiences from Young People in Africa Anthology comprises of 4 human-interest stories from real young people who decided to remain anonymous but used their story to create awareness and impact. The book also contains 20 pieces done in pure English language, two of the most popular pieces done in the Swahili language and 3 pieces done in a mix of both English and Swahili which is also a rising writing and communication trend in east and central Africa. The book contains important chapters focusing on what mental health is for young people and what people could generally do to build a better mental health status. In this book you will find inspiration, you find sad experiences, you will find funny pieces, you will find love and resilience, you will find grit but most importantly, you will find hope. Hope that we young people can change the tide, hope that we young people can beat mental health, hope that we young people will always rise above after we fall, we will always come back stronger and that we will not only survive, we will thrive.

Managing Infrastructure Assets for Sustainable Development (Swahili language) - Department of Economic and Social Affairs 2022-09-29

The handbook provides guidance for national and local policymakers on the management of their assets in support of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. In clear and accessible language, it introduces the reader to the basic principles of managing physical assets like equipment and machinery, public land, buildings and infrastructure facilities in the most cost effective and sustainable manner. It introduces a number of practical and field-tested tools to help local and central governments assess their asset management needs and develop comprehensive and proactive asset management frameworks, policies and strategies. The publication places special emphasis on far-sighted and effective actions that integrate financial, lifecycle and demand aspects of asset management. Topical deep dives cover the implications of Covid-19 and climate change on asset management; measures that help build statistical and data capacity as well as guidance on creating an enabling environment for local asset management at the national level. Short case studies, practical exercises and references to reading materials throughout the book aim to further contextualize the content and engage the reader.
