Rada - Rubén Rada 2014-04-22

Es la vida del Negro Rada, sus ilusiones, éxitos, desencuentros, caídas y resurrecciones. Un sorprendente resumen de gran parte de la biografía musical uruguaya y argentina de los últimos sesenta años. La música popular rioplatense sigue teniendo en Ruben Rada a una de sus figuras más talentosas, originales, carismáticas e influyentes. Showman innato, de particular sentido del humor, es también considerado uno de los pioneros en la gestación del territorio sonoro que mezcla el candombe con el rock, el jazz y otros estilos. En colaboración con el investigador y escritor Fernando Peláez, Rada expresa en este libro su admiración por los músicos y músicas que amó y lo inspiraron, así como por aquellos colegas con los que tanto compartió durante las diferentes etapas de su trayectoria. Desde su niñez vivida en la pobreza económica, los recuerdos y anécdotas aquí rescatados recorren una vida plena de ilusiones, éxitos, desencuentros, viajes, caídas, resurrecciones y un notable instinto para alcanzar la libertad de acción necesaria para un creador. Además, casi sin proponérselo, Rada y Peláez terminan relatando, de manera extremadamente clara y sencilla, un sorprendente resumen de buena parte de la biografía musical uruguaya y argentina de los últimos sesenta años.

Carnival Art, Culture and Politics - Michaeline Crichlow 2013-09-13

Drawing on rich insights from cultural, post-structural and postcolonial studies, this book demands that we rethink Carnival and the carnivalesque as not just celebratory moments or even as critical subtext, but also as insightful performatives of social life anywhere, given the entangled times and spaces of these performances. The authors review Carnival's performative aspects not merely as a calendrical festival, but rather center attention on the relationship between carnival and everyday life, and on how people negotiate their social spaces and possibilities in the context of modern power. The book therefore seeks to highlight the knotted time-spaces of power and to demonstrate the dynamic interplay between state spaces and people's spaces that are being weaved by carnival's interlocutors. It demonstrates how Carnival and the Carnivalesque become analytic optics through which the relations of power in the social and political life of subjects who seek to tacitly or strategically vary their given identities, can be productively engaged. This book was originally published as a special issue of Social Identities: Journal for the Study of Race, Nation and Culture.

Otra España negra - Bozal, Valeriano 2020-10-20

En la segunda mitad del siglo xix, sus últimos años y los primeros años del xx España negra se hizo presente en las principales ciudades del país. Su origen se encontraba en la industrialización, la emigración, el trabajo precario e infantil, los bajos salarios, la desigualdad social, etc. Barcelona y Madrid son las principales manifestaciones de otra España negra, diferentes pero afines. La emigración tiene en Galicia su expresión más concreta. Este proceso vuelve a repetirse entre los años cuarenta y sesenta del siglo xx, ahora con referencias políticas muy concretas, y configura el marco que proporciona sentido a la literatura y al arte de aquellos años. Baroja, Azorín, D'Ors, el joven Picasso, Nonell, Mir, Casas, Zuloaga, Solana, Castelao protagonizan el primer período. Delibes, Cela, Ferrer, Laforet, Martín Santos, Goytisolo, Marsé, entre otros, forman parte del segundo, tanto o más dramático que aquel.

Del tango al reggae. Músicas negras de América Latina y del Caribe - Leymarie, Isabelle 2015-06-11

Guaguancó, son, rumba, mambo, chachachá, samba, biguine, kompa, zouk, reggae, raggamuffin, bomba, merengue, calypso, soca, Latin jazz: el mundo afrolatino y caribe es un inagotable manantial de ritmos y de melodías. Este libro presenta un fascinante panorama de sus principales géneros tradicionales y populares. Evoca artistas como Bob Marley, Celia Cruz, Machito, Kassav, Gilberto Gil, Milton Nascimento, Harry Belafonte o Mighty Sparrow. Permite descubrir las músicas negras —todavía desconocidas— de países como Bolivia, Argentina, Chile, México, Costa Rica u Honduras, y recuerda en particular los orígenes africanos, generalmente insospechados, del tango y de la milonga.

From the Tango to Reggae - Isabelle Leymarie 2017-12-04

Guaguancó, son, rumba, mambo, chachacha, samba, biguine, compas, bossa nova, Latin jazz, zouk, reggae, ragga, bomba, merengue, calypso, soca, dancehall: the Afro-Latin and Afro-Caribbean world is an endless wellspring of rhythms and melodies. This book offers a fascinating overview of its main traditional and popular genres. It considers artists such as Bob Marley, Celia Cruz, Machito, Kassav', Gilberto Gil, Milton Nascimento, Harry Belafonte, Mighty Sparrow, and Rihanna. It also allows us to discover the still little known black music of countries such as Bolivia, Mexico, Costa Rica or Honduras, and explains, in particular, the African origin of the tango and the milonga. An award-winning pianist, musicologist, and documentary filmmaker, Isabelle Leymarie has taught at several American academic institutions, including The New School, Livingston College's Jazz Department, Boricua College, and Yale; and at several conservatories and music schools in the United States and France. She is the author of over a dozen books published in several languages, among them Cuban Fire: The Story of Salsa and Latin Jazz (Continuum); Dizzy Gillespie (Actes Sud); Jazz Latino (Robinbooks); Cuba - La música cubana (Océano); Picasso and All That Jazz (Createspace); and Jazz Piano: Yesterday and Today (Createspace).

Place and Locality in Modern France - Philip Whalen 2014-10-23

Place and Locality in Modern France analyses the significance and changing constructions of local place in modern France. Drawing on the expertise of a range of scholars from around the world, this book provides a timely overview of the cross-disciplinary thinking that is currently taking place over a central issue in French history. The contributed chapters address a range of subjects that include: the politics of administrative reform, decentralization, regionalism and local advocacy; the role of commerce in engendering narratives and experience of local place; the importance of ethnic, class, gender and race distinctions in shaping local connection and identity; the generation and transmission of knowledge about local place and culture through academia, civic heritage and popular memory. As a reconsideration of the 'local' in French history, Place and Locality in Modern France bridges the divide between micro- and macro-history for all those interested in ideas of locality and culture in modern French and European history.

Pablo Gargallo. La luz habitada - Mas Arrondo, Carlos 2021

Pablo Gargallo (1881-1934) cobra capital relevancia en la incorporación de la plástica a la modernidad. Situado en la encrucijada del fértil periodo de entreguerras, la dualidad de su producción escultórica, entre la tradición y la vanguardia, hacen de él un artista excepcional e inclasificable, pionero tanto en la sustitución del macizo por el hueco como por la utilización del hierro. Esta monografía indaga acerca de la vida y la obra del creador, a la par que propone un ameno viaje conducente a buscar sentidos y significados. El contexto y la comparación sirven a los efectos de precisar los términos de la particular radicalidad gargalliana que se celebra fundamentalmente en el museo zaragozano que lleva su nombre.

Culture Works - Arlene Dávila 2012-04-16

Culture Works addresses and critiques an important dimension of the "work of culture," an argument made by enthusiasts of creative economies that culture contributes to the GDP, employment, social cohesion, and other forms of neoliberal development. While culture does make important contributions to national and urban economies, the incentives and benefits of participating in this economy are not distributed equally, due to restructuring that neoliberal policies have wrought from the 1980s on, as well as long-standing social structures, such as racism and classism, that breed inequality. The cultural economy promises to make life better, particularly in cities, but not everyone can take advantage of it for decent jobs. Exposing and challenging the taken-for-granted assumptions around questions of space, value and mobility that are sustained by neoliberal treatments of culture, Culture Works explores some of the hierarchies of cultural workers that these engender, as they play out in a variety of settings, from shopping malls in Puerto Rico and art galleries in New York to tango tourism in Buenos Aires. Noted scholar Arlene Dávila brilliantly reveals how similar dynamics of space, value and mobility come to bear in each location, inspiring particular cultural politics that have repercussions that are both geographically specific, but also ultimately global in scope.

EN DOS SEGUNDOS - LILIAN COSTAMAGNA 2022-02-01

“En dos segundos”, una novela que parte de un hecho real, fortuito y fatídico ambientado en Bariloche, en diferentes cárceles del país y en la ciudad de Santa Fe. En retrospectiva se ficcionan las historias de los personajes principales, donde se abordan variados temas controvertidos. Cómo cambia la vida en sólo dos segundos: “El segundo en que vivo es el segundo en que habito”. La reinserción social y los estudios intramuros: “La Universidad va a la cárcel”; “Así se va construyendo el andamiaje que le proporcionará la libertad”. La relación padre-hijo: “Ojalá que el hijo que vamos a tener, se parezca a mí, porque a este hijo sí le voy a dar todo el amor que necesita... Al otro, ya lo perdí”. La corrupción: “...se extiende como una mancha venenosa que avanza inexorablemente”. La marginalidad: “...la defensa de los excluidos del sistema social, educativo y laboral”. El mundo narco y de la justicia/injusticia: “La droga es un vehículo para soñar primero y para transformarse en delincuentes, después” (los perejiles). Los medios, una interpelación: “...sólo informan u opinan superficialmente, sin indagar en el interior de las almas”; “La vida, esa frágil circunstancia, nos pone a prueba y nos tantea”. Tragedia y pasiones: “Leer entrelíneas, descubrir en la simpleza de lo cotidiano, lo que hay en el alma humana y qué pasiones nos mueven” “...a veces devengan en tragedias, y ni los dioses griegos pueden evitarlas”.

Marketing internacional de lugares y destinos - Philip Kotler 2006

A diferencia de la mayoría de los libros de marketing, que ponen especial atención en productos y servicios, Marketing internacional de lugares y destinos tiene un enfoque especial para los interesados o responsables de promover lugares, con ejemplos enfocados a Latinoamérica. También permite comprender el alcance de las estrategias al respecto y los múltiples factores que influyen en el proceso de decisión de los clientes potenciales. Nos presenta ejemplos reales de lugares y destinos que no han sabido aprovechar sus recursos naturales ni su infraestructura para atraer a sus mercados meta, o bien, que han ignorado su posicionamiento. También se presentan casos de éxito, donde el posicionamiento es bastante claro, y sus estrategias, efectivas.

El rock en el cine mexicano - Karla Paulina Sánchez Barajas 2020-04-22

La relevancia que a lo largo de la historia ha tenido el rock en el cine, ha dado pauta para considerarlo un elemento clave de la narrativa cinematográfica en el sonido, la música, el guion, el montaje y la imagen en sí; es decir, el rock ha configurado una estética fílmica. En tal sentido, este libro se propone realizar un análisis sobre el rol que en México ha jugado este género musical en los momentos en que se ha incorporado al cine, tomando en cuenta dos épocas claves en la historia de este país tanto para el cine como para el rock: la década de los ochenta y la transición al nuevo milenio.

Cuban Fire - Isabelle Leymarie 2002

The story of popular music of Cuban origin and its major artists from the 1920s to today.

Hispanic Culture of South America - Peter Standish 1995

One of a series of reference volumes, each examining a cultural period of a particular nation. Culture is used in a broad sense to encompass all the ways in which a people define themselves, including a wide scope of human communication and expression, from advertising to fine art. Famous individuals are also covered, such as John Cgae, Jackson Pollock, Richard Burton, Mussolini, Lenin and Aretha Franklin. In addition, the text defines the entries and describes and analyzes the influence and significance of each one. For example, an entry on abstract expressionism will not only define the movement, but will also describe what it means to us and what it says about us. Entries range from 50 to 1000 words, with between 500 and 1000 entries appearing in each individual volume.

Black Legend - Paulina L. Alberto 2022-01-06

Celebrities live their lives in constant dialogue with stories about them. But when these stories are shaped by durable racist myths, they wield undue power to ruin lives and obliterate communities. Black Legend is the haunting story of an Afro-Argentine, Raúl Grigera ('el negro Raúl'), who in the early 1900s audaciously fashioned himself into an alluring Black icon of Buenos Aires' bohemian nightlife, only to have defamatory storytellers unmake him. In this gripping history, Paulina Alberto exposes the destructive power of racial storytelling and narrates a new history of Black Argentina and Argentine Blackness across two centuries. With the extraordinary Raúl Grigera at its center, Black Legend opens new windows into lived experiences of Blackness in a 'white' nation, and illuminates how Raúl's experience of celebrity was not far removed from more ordinary experiences of racial stories in the flesh.

A Cuban Cinema Companion - Salvador Jimenez Murguía 2020-01-15

With the recent shift in Cuba-US relations stemming from the relaxing of travel restrictions and an influx of American visitors, interest in Cuba and its culture has increased substantially. A new emphasis has been placed on the island country's many cultural and artistic achievements, specifically in film. Cuban cinema is recognized around the world as having produced some of the most celebrated works originating from Latin America—such as Fresa y Chocolate and La Muerte de un Burócrata—as well as many prominent artists—including directors Tomás Gutiérrez Alea and Humberto Solás. In A Cuban Cinema Companion, editors Salvador Jimenez Murguía, Sean O'Reilly, and Amanda McMenamín have assembled a collection of essays about more than 100 films across six decades, including feature films, documentaries, and animation. These entries also provide information on directors, actresses, and actors of Cuban cinema. Entries range from films like Retrato de Teresa to Buena Vista Social Club and include descriptions of each film's plot, themes, and critical commentary, as well as comprehensive production details and brief suggestions for further reading. Beginning with the victory of the Cuban revolution—from the first ten years of what is often referred to as Cuba's "Golden Age" of film to the present—this volume offers readers valuable insights into Cuban history, politics, and culture. An indispensable guide to one of the great world cinemas, A Cuban Cinema Companion will be of interest to students, academics, and the general public alike.
